CAUSE

Daniel Sanchez has been on supervised release for 34 months and this is his first violation process. On May 8, 2008, Mr. Sanchez was arrested by the Washington State Patrol for driving under the influence and having an open alcoholic container in his vehicle. Mr. Sanchez has his next court appearance for his new charges on June 4, 2008 and June 17, 2008. His driving under the influence offense is of a serious nature; however, making him serve his community will assist in making him accountable for violating his supervision requirements of having law-abiding behavior. He will also be required to begin random drug testing again for the remainder of his supervised release.

I declare under penalty of perjury that the foregoing is true and correct.

Waiver of Hearing to Modify Conditions of Probation/Supervised Release or Extend Term of Supervision

I have been advised and understand that I am entitled by law to a hearing and assistance of counsel before any unfavorable change may be made in my Conditions of Probation and Supervised Release or my period of supervision being extended. By "assistance of counsel," I understand that I have the right to be represented at the hearing by counsel of my own choosing if I am able to retain counsel. I also understand that I have the right to request the court to appoint counsel to represent me at such a hearing at no cost to myself if I am not able to retain counsel of my own choosing.

I hereby voluntarily waive my statutory right to a hearing and to assistance of counsel. I also agree to following modification of my Conditions of Probation and Supervised Release or to the proposed extension of my term of supervision:
